

National Disability Forum
“What Impairments Have a Likelihood to Improve?”

Partnership for Public Service, Washington, DC 20005

Tuesday, December 3, 2019

1:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m. ET

Live Stream URL

<https://video.ibm.com/channel/pps-live>

Agenda

Welcome

Stephanie Bovell

Acting Deputy Associate Commissioner, Office of Disability Policy, Social Security Administration (SSA)

Opening

Mark Warshawsky

Deputy Commissioner, Office of Retirement and Disability Policy, SSA

Panel Discussion

Moderator: Howard H. Goldman, M.D., Ph.D.

Professor of Psychiatry, University of Maryland School of Medicine

Nicole L. Stout, DPT, CLT-LANA, FAPTA

Research Assistant Professor, School of Medicine, Department of Hematology/Oncology, West Virginia University Cancer Institute

Tommie L. Robinson, Jr., Ph.D, CCC-SLP

Chief, Division of Hearing and Speech, Director, Scottish Rite Center for Childhood Language Disorders, Children’s Hearing and Speech Center
Children’s National Hospital

Kashif M. Munir, M.D.

Associate Professor of Medicine, Division of Endocrinology, Diabetes and Nutrition, University of Maryland School of Medicine

Clinton B. Wright, M.D., M.S.

Director of the Division of Clinical Research
National Institute of Neurological Disorders and Stroke (NINDS)

Robert E. Drake, M.D., Ph.D.

Vice President, Westat Corporation

Open Discussion

All

Closing Remarks

Stephanie Bovell

Acting Deputy Associate Commissioner, Office of Disability Policy, Social Security Administration (SSA)